

ESM Fig. 7. The relationship between measured liver fat and the fasting serum triglycerides (TG) from the complete sample series.

The shaded circles denote the male subjects and the white circles denote the female subjects. The Pearson correlation coefficient of the association is $r=0.32$ ($p < 2.2 \times 10^{-16}$). The regression lines shown correspond to male (red), female (blue) and all (green) subjects.