

‘July-September rainfall in the Greater Horn of Africa: the combined influence of the Mascarene and South Atlantic highs’

Climate Dynamics

Ellen Dyer · Linda Hirons · Meron Teferi Taye

School of Geography and the Environment, University of Oxford E-mail: ellen.dyer@ouce.ox.ac.uk

Online Resource 1: Alternative plots made with TAMSAT v3.1 over the period 1983-2018 that correspond to plots made with CHIRPS over the period 1981-2018. a) Corresponds to the regional selection and creation of the JAS GHA mask in Figure 1b. b) Corresponds to Figure 7 which is a correlation of the AH-MH circulation metric with JAS rainfall throughout Africa. c-d) Correspond to Figures 3 a-b which are correlations of the MH and AH circulation metrics with JAS rainfall throughout Africa.