

Mitrofanoff procedure in children : use of the appendix and VQZ plasty seems to minimize complications.

Adriana König, Ashley X. Wiseman, Barbara Wildhaber, Isabelle Vidal, Jacques Birraux
Corresponding author : isabelle.andrieuvidal@hug.ch

Items of the survey sent to the patients

- 1) Date of the last medical check-up for the vesicostomy.
- 2) Do you currently require any medical treatment for the bladder? No/ Yes. If yes, name of current medication.
- 3) Did you encounter any difficulties catheterizing the stoma (abnormally small passage)? No/ Yes. If yes: Date, and How was this situation managed by the medical team?
- 4) Did you encounter any urine leaks from the stoma? No/ Yes. If yes: Date, and How were the urine leaks managed?
- 5) Since the vesicostomy procedure, did you encounter any urine leaks through the natural channels? No/ Yes. If yes: Date, and How were the urine leaks managed?
- 6) Have you had other procedures for your vesicostomy? No/ Yes. If yes: For what reason did you require further intervention? What was the intervention?
1st intervention (Date/reason/ intervention). Possibility to complete answers until 4 interventions.
- 7) Do you still self-catheterize using your stoma? No/ Yes.
If no: What year did you stop?
If yes: How many times per day do you self-catheterize? What is the size of the catheter you use? Do you resort to continuous drainage during the night? No/Yes (hours per night).
- 8) Have you had one or more pregnancies? No/ Yes. If yes: number, C-section/ vaginal/ both (if multiple pregnancies).
- 9) Comments: Is there anything else you would like to share with us?