

Action	Definition ^a
Approach	The emitter comes within one meter to another individual
Displacement	After getting within one meter of another individual, the emitter moves back but remain within three meters.
Follow	The emitter walks while maintaining close proximity to another individual, ensuring no physical contact.
Grooming	The emitter uses both hands to push the hair back with the thumb or index finger of one hand, while holding it back and picking at the exposed skin with the nail of the thumb or index finger of the other hand.
Leave	After being within one meter of another individual, the emitter moves away.
Mount	The emitter places its pelvis against individual's behind
Move limb away	The emitter withdraws a limb from another individual
Position other	The emitter moves the recipient's body gently, without pushing or pulling,
Pull	The emitter seizes and tugs an object or another individual by bending the arms to apply force.
Push	The emitter applies force by extending the arms while in contact, causing the recipient to move.
Reposition	The emitter changes body position. For example, makes a body part more accessible by either sitting down or standing up.
Sniff	The emitter puts nose close to another individual body
Turn head away	The emitter averts its face from another individual