

Mapping vaccination mindsets among UK residents of Black ethnicities with HIV: lessons from COVID-19, AIDS & Behaviour, Moon, Z., Campbell L., Ottaway, Z., Fox, J., Burns, F., Hamzah L., Ustianowski, A., Clarke, A., Schoeman, S., Sally, D., Tariq, S., Post, F.A., Horne, R.
Corresponding author: Prof Rob Horne, University College London, r.horne@ucl.ac.uk

Online Resource 2. Questions used to evaluate COVID-19 vaccine necessity and concerns beliefs

	Questions evaluating vaccination necessity beliefs
N1	A COVID-19 vaccine will protect me
N2	A COVID-19 vaccine will protect me from getting COVID-19
N3	I will have a COVID-19 vaccine to get back to normal life
N4	I will have a COVID-19 vaccine to protect others from COVID-19
N5	A COVID-19 vaccine will protect me from getting severe COVID-19
N6	I do not need a vaccine because COVID-19 is mild for most people *
	Questions evaluating vaccination concerns beliefs
C1	I am concerned about having a COVID-19 vaccine
C2	I am worried about the long-term effects of a COVID-19 vaccine
C3	It is very likely that a COVID-19 vaccine will give me side effects
C4	I am concerned that a COVID-19 vaccine can give me COVID-19
C5	I trust that approved COVID-19 vaccines are safe *
C6	I am concerned that COVID-19 vaccines contain bits of foetus
C7	I am concerned that COVID-19 vaccines contain materials from pigs
C8	COVID-19 vaccines reduce fertility and are a way to control the birth rate in black people
C9	A COVID-19 vaccine will do more harm than good
C10	COVID-19 vaccines contain harmful microchips

© Copyright Professor Rob Horne

* indicates reverse scoring