

Figure S1

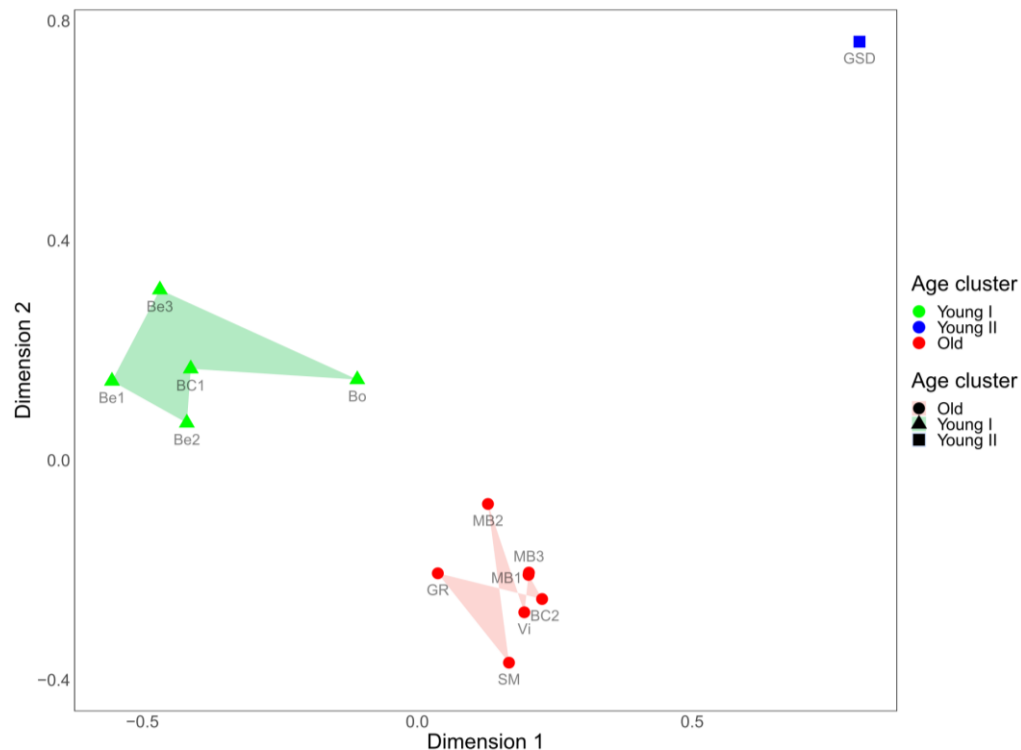

Figure s1: Multidimensional scaling of the CPM (counts per million reads) values of the samples, with distances between the individuals representing the biological coefficient of variation. Coloring of the groups is according to the visibly distinguishable clusters. Young II is an outlier young dog, a 4-year-old German shepherd dog.