

Legend:

- | | | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| □ Two food crops, coffee and khat | ○ Two food crops and khat | △ One food crop, coffee and khat | + Three food crops, coffee and khat | × Three food crops and khat |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------|

Online Resource 8 Visualization of the gradient of food security as measured by HFIAS scores and number of crops in specific livelihood strategies. The black contour lines are the HFIAS scores. High HFIAS scores indicate low food security and low HFIAS scores indicate high food security. The blue contour lines indicate the number of crops. Households with higher number of crops have higher food security.