

Description of Additional Supplementary Files

Supplementary Movie 1. Dynamic observation of the patterned letters with directional gratings when the sample is rotated under the illumination of white light. It shows the appearance of various letters at the different rotation angles, which means that the directional gratings fabricated by our laser ablation lithography work very well.