

Description of Additional Supplementary Files

File Name: Supplementary Data 1

Description: Survey questionnaire used for data collection. The document (pdf) contains the full text of the survey questionnaire used for collection survey responses. The survey contains 42 question spread in 9 sections. The survey questionnaire indicates the branching logic for conditional questions where applicable.

This analysis uses responses from set of survey question. The survey questionnaire is designed using Qualtrics and was administered online using survey link.

File Name: Supplementary Data 2

Description: The excel file reports the summary statistics of the respondent by country. The rows report the respondent's country and response characteristics are reported in the column.