

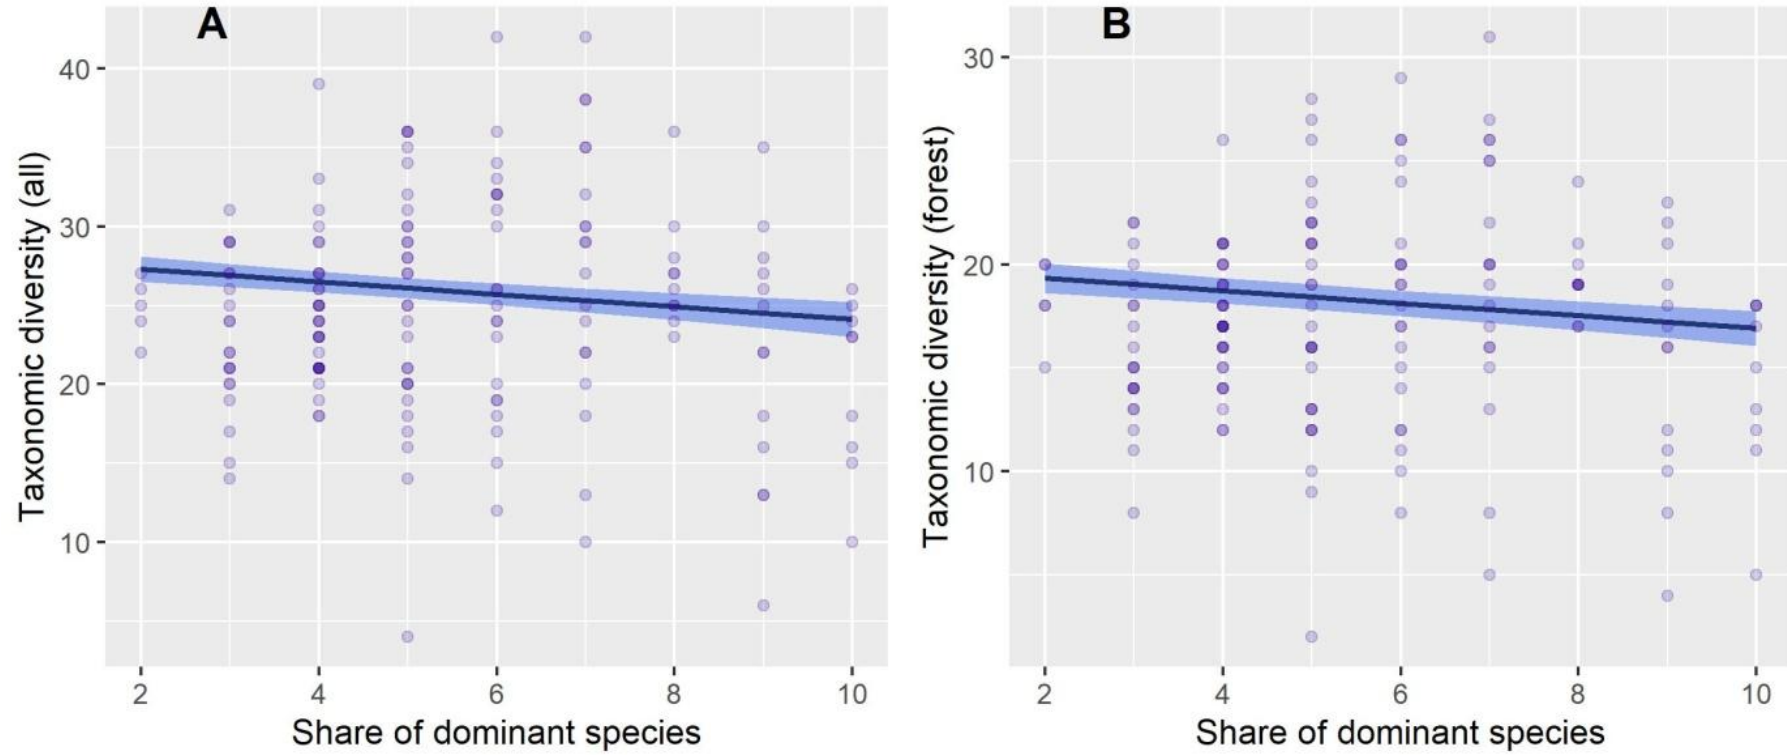

Figure S4. Response curves, derived from General Additive Modelling, showing the relationship between taxonomic diversity (calculated for all of the bird species and forest specialist group) and share of dominant species within a forest stand (ranging from 0 to 10).