

Description of Additional Supplementary Files

File name: Supplementary Data 1

Description: 428 species with spatial data available included within this study. Only species level complementarity was considered, and so where several sub-species are listed, these were then aggregated. 7 additional species could not be included in the prioritisations as they were only present in coastal cells with <50% land coverage (end of table).