Dear Professor Fernald,

Your manuscript titled "Effects of Cash Transfers on Child Cognitive, Language, and Socio-emotional Development: A Systematic Review and Meta-analysis of Studies in Low- or Middle-Income Countries" has now been seen by Reviewers #1 and #2. In light of their advice I am delighted to say that we are happy, in principle, to publish a suitably revised version in Communications Psychology.

We therefore invite you to revise your paper one last time to address the remaining concerns of our reviewers and a list of editorial requests. At the same time we ask that you edit your manuscript to comply with our format requirements and to maximise the accessibility and therefore the impact of your work.

EDITORIAL REQUESTS:

Please review our specific editorial comments and requests regarding your manuscript in the attached "Editorial Requests Table". Please outline your response to each request in the right hand column. Please upload the completed table with your manuscript files as a Related Manuscript file.

If you have any questions or concerns about any of our requests, please do not hesitate to contact me.

SUBMISSION INFORMATION:

In order to accept your paper, we require the files listed here <https://www.nature.com/documents/commsj-file-checklist.pdf>.

OPEN ACCESS:

Communications Psychology is a fully open access journal. Articles are made freely accessible on publication. For further information about article processing charges, open access funding, and advice and support from Nature Research, please visit <https://www.nature.com/commspsychol/open-access>

At acceptance, you will be provided with instructions for completing the open access licence agreement on behalf of all authors. This grants us the necessary permissions to publish your paper. Additionally, you will be asked to declare that all required third party permissions have been obtained, and to provide billing information in order to pay the article-processing charge (APC).

* TRANSPARENT PEER REVIEW: Communications Psychology uses a transparent peer review system. On author request, confidential information and data can be removed from the published reviewer reports and rebuttal letters prior to publication. If you are concerned about the release of confidential data, please let us know specifically what information you would like to have removed. Please note that we cannot incorporate redactions for any other reasons.

* CODE AVAILABILITY: All Communications Psychology manuscripts must include a section titled "Code Availability" at the end of the methods section. We require that the custom analysis code supporting your conclusions is made available in a publicly accessible repository at this stage; please choose a repository that generates a digital object identifier (DOI) for the code; the link to the repository and the DOI must be included in the Code Availability statement. Publication as Supplementary Information will not suffice.

* DATA AVAILABILITY:

All Communications Psychology manuscripts must include a section titled "Data Availability" at the end of the Methods section. More information on this policy, is available in the Editorial Requests Table and at <http://www.nature.com/authors/policies/data/data-availability-statements-data-citations.pdf>.

Please use the following link to submit the above items:
