

Additional file 2: Classification of dynamics for the cyclic task.

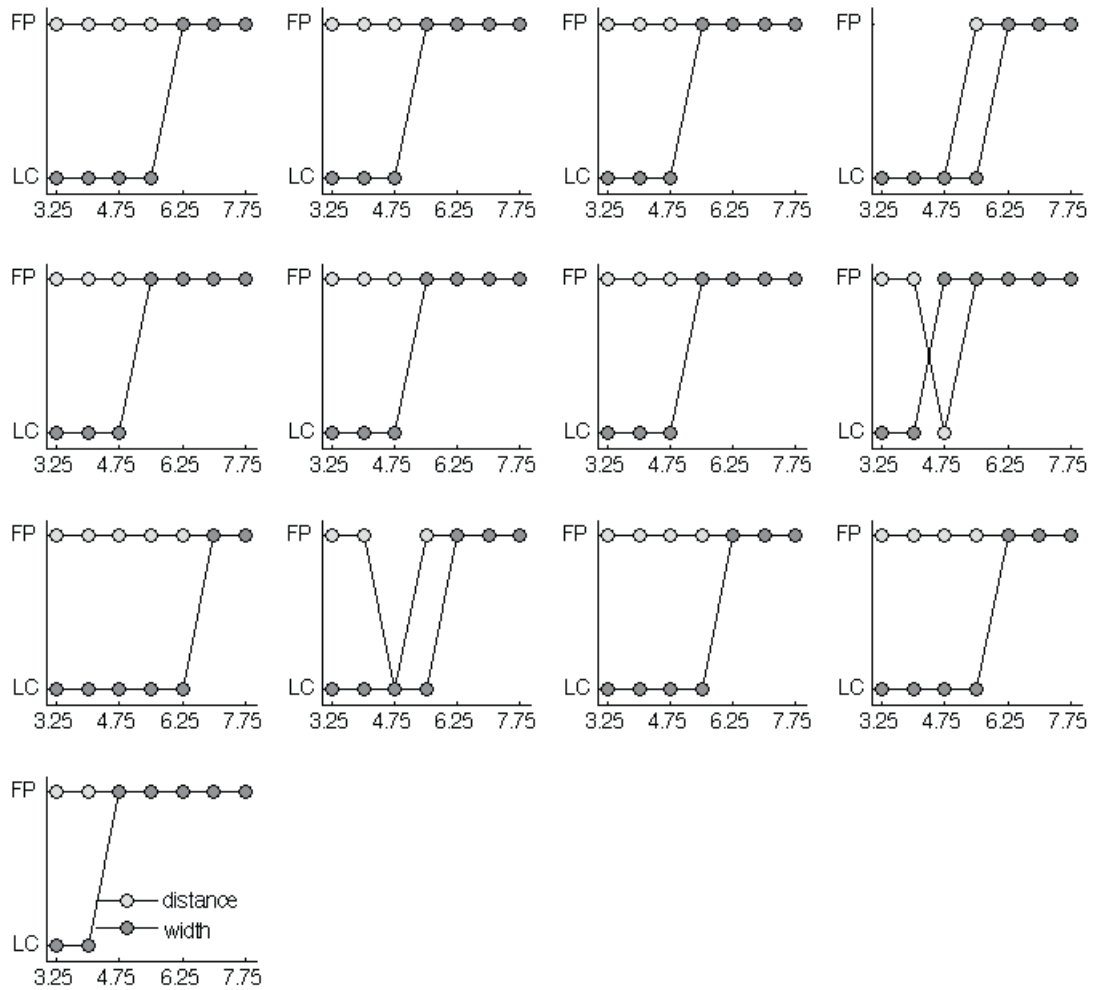

Figure: Identified attractor structures in the cyclic task for the width and distance conditions. White dots represent distance conditions; gray dots represent width conditions (legend in the lower panel only). The horizontal axis displays ID, the vertical axis sets fixed point trials ("FP") and limit cycle trials ("LC") apart. Each panel contains the data of one participant.