

Figure S2 Linsen et al

Figure S2. Correlation between 6 datasets. Each dataset is defined on the diagonal. Scatter plots show below the diagonal that the profiles are more reproducible among identical tissues than between different tissues. The correlation is quantified by the correlation coefficient (spearman's ρ) above the diagonal.