

Additional file 11 – Intra-clade SNP diversity and uniqueness. Number of SNPs unique to each isolate and percentage of total SNPs detected. Represented below each clade designation are: the number of SNPs that represents the total pool of SNPs shared by all isolates belonging to the respective clade; and, the range of the total percentage that this latter SNP pool count comprises from the total percentage of the isolates' detected SNPs.