Predicted & observed 5 year risk by model tenth
Chronic Kidney Disease in the THIN database

Data source: THIN database

Notes on understanding calibration curves: The graphs show that the red and the blue curves are very close which shows the close correspondence between observed and predicted risk at each level (tenth) of predicted risk.