

Recently delivered women identified from computerised Child Health System (CHS) records 8 weeks after birth. CHS sends patient list to practices/GPs to check for possible exclusions.

