

TAI Mobility

		Level	Status	Illustration
 Copyright by TAI research group	Climb stairs	5	The elderly person can climb stairs without assistance and can walk out of a house.	 Copyright by TAI research group
		Yes ↗
		No ↘
 Copyright by TAI research group	Walk alone on a flat floor	4	The elderly person can not climb stairs but can walk alone without assistance on a flat floor.	  Copyright by TAI research group
		Yes ↗
		No ↘
 Copyright by TAI research group	Both move around using equipment and transfer while sitting	3	The elderly person cannot walk alone on a flat floor without help, but can move on a flat floor with instruments such as walking aid, wheelchair, cane, brace or walls.	  Copyright by TAI research group
		Yes ↗
		No ↘
 Copyright by TAI research group	Both sit up and maintain seated position	2	The elderly person need help for transferring or moving, but can stand up from bed, and remain seated without help.	  Copyright by TAI research group
		Yes ↗
		No ↘
 Copyright by TAI research group	Roll over on the bed while lying	1	The elderly person cannot transfer himself while sitting but can remain seated and change body position while lying.	  Copyright by TAI research group
		Yes ↗
		No ↘
		0	The elderly person cannot change body position while lying on a bed.	  Copyright by TAI research group