

Surveillance military specificities

Variable geographical location of missions

Places with no historical surveillance data

High mobility of forces

Diffuse geographical localization of surveillance stakeholders

Stress and difficult conditions of work in the field

Continuity of service

Multinationality

Compatibility with information system of commanders

Highest level of security

Permanent turnover of soldiers

Timeliness	1		3
Validity	1		3
Data quality	1	2	3
Usefulness	1	2	3
Costs	1	2
Sensitivity	1		3
Reliability	1
Acceptability	1
Portability	1		3
Stability	1		3
Flexibility	1
Specificity	1		3

Pertinence	1		3
Feasibility	1	2	3
Coherence	1		3
Security	1	2	3
Operationality	1		3
Efficacy	1
Efficiency	1
Interoperability	1		3
Impact	1

General evaluation Framework (CDC)

Specific methods

KAP surveys
Ergonomic studies
Simulation
Multinational exercise
Technical audit

1 2SE FAG

2 PRISM

3 RMS