

A change in Actor II utility moves up the Pareto Frontier, from the original one to the (dashed) modified one.
This enable a move from A to any point in the "A1" curve, and a move from B to any point in the "B1" curve.
These moves improve the position of both Actors, leading to a new equilibrium point for the system.