

Context: Addressing the disabling barriers to participation of wheelchair users in society

High quality cost-effectiveness evidence and service user views

Policy & NFPO recommendations Health & psychosocial needs of children & young people Clinical guidelines

Knowledge translation framework

Streamline service pathway / develop cost-saving procurement strategies

Timely and efficient assessment and supply with embedded psychosocial support and wheelchair and life skills training

Develop outcome measures

Appropriate proximal and distal outcome measures

Health outcomes

Psychosocial outcomes

Facilitation of improved lifestyle and social participation

Address health needs

Address environmental barriers

Cost-effective wheelchair intervention

Cost-effectiveness analysis

Continuing service development – collaboration between third party, national health service, private services and service users

Key

Framework stages	----->	Area for development
Required actions	----->	Direction of progression
Development stages	----->	Direction of progression
Overarching context	----->	Interaction