

NB. The arrows indicate perceived causal links between phenomena: the weight of the connecting lines gives an indication of the strength of the relationship.