

A score ≥ 4 points in the sum of the 10 items of the DN4 questionnaire resulted in the best discriminant cut-off point for the sample after excluding patients with mixed pain and central neuropathic pain.