

I

A histological section of tissue, likely stained with hematoxylin and eosin (H&E), showing a complex cellular structure. A central blue cross-shaped artifact is present, with green rectangular labels I, II, and III overlaid on it. The tissue shows various cellular components, including nuclei and cytoplasm, with some areas appearing more densely stained than others.

II

III