

Figure S2 Results of Bayesian clustering analysis performed in STRUCTURE. For each K tested, the Ln P (D) equals the mean of the estimated log of the probability of the data across 10 different runs, while the  $\Delta K$  was determined by the second order rate of change of these log likelihoods.