

Additional file 1. Analysis of particle number and protein amount after SEC isolation. Ten SEC fractions were collected from one patient, and particle number and protein amount in each fraction was analysed to evaluate in which fractions EVs and non-EV proteins elute. The results suggests that most EVs are eluted in fraction 1-5, while proteins elute in fraction 6 and later.