

Additional file 4. Nano-Flow cytometry (nFCM) measurement of the particle size (diameter) distribution and concentration of EV preparations from the 7 patients with breast cancer. Concentration values reported in the graph is back-calculated values for particles per ml of lymphatic drainage fluid. Gating range: 25-125 nm. $\geq 99\%$ of the particles analysed were within the gating range.