

Combined effects of total pre-existing comorbidities and age on stroke risk in men and women respectively. The Cox proportional hazard models were adjusted for BMI, current smoking, and drinking status.