

Supplementary Figure 9. Violin plots showing the distribution of alpha diversity metrics between males (red) and females (blue) across for each data set and estimator. In each violin plot, the black horizontal line is the median alpha diversity and each point is the alpha diversity estimate for a single sample.

