

Questionnaire

1. Which is the most difficult problem for you to take history from Chinese patients in OB/GY?
 - A. Can't take history by speaking Chinese Putong language
 - B. Can't understand the local language spoken by the Chinese patients
 - C. Being unfamiliar with the OB/GY diseases
 - D. Others such as _____
2. Which method do you want to choose at first to practice taking history in OB/GY?
 - A. Taking history from standard patients pretended by teachers
 - B. Taking history from the real clinical patients
 - C. Practicing Chinese language with teachers during the courses
 - D. Watching some videos on taking history in OB/GY
3. Do you think the standard patients pretended by teachers can help you communicate with the Chinese patients?
 - A. Yes, very useful
 - B. Yes, partly
 - C. No
 - D. N/S
4. Which aspects do you think the standard patients can help you in?
 - A. Training the skill in collecting history
 - B. Practicing how to arrange the tests for the OB/GY patients
 - C. Practicing making the diagnosis for the OB/GY patients
 - D. Practicing treating the OB/GY patients
5. Which language do you want the teachers speak during the OB/GY clinical practice?
 - A. English
 - B. Both English and Chinese
 - C. Chinese
6. Which country are you from? _____
7. How long have you been in China? _____ Years
8. Which language do you usually speak in? _____
9. What suggestions can you supply to improve the teaching method of standard patients for taking history? _____

