During the encounter I felt that the SP:
Has the ability to fit in to the role
Has ability to communicate well with me
Played his / her role in a professional manner
Gave me sufficient time to talk (e.g., didn't interrupt).
Listened to me carefully
Gave me undivided attention
Answered all my questions with relevant answers
Clarified information whenever I asked for
Maintained a respectful tone (e.g., did not belittle me; did not talk down to me).
Made me feel comfortable during the course of the encounter
Asked me leading questions and guided me through the process
I would like to be trained with SPs for other scenarios as well
I would recommend SPs for regular training in all clinical departments
What one thing you liked the most about the SP interaction?
What one thing you did not like about the SP interaction?
What could have been done better in the SP interaction?
