

INTERVIEW GUIDE FOR LECTURERS

Introductory question: Can you please give me a short profile of yourself? (Your age, gender, marital status, designation, and year of experience).

Experience of Domiciliary midwifery (Other probing questions were asked based on their response)

1. Please share with me your understanding of domiciliary midwifery.
2. Why is domiciliary midwifery mandatory for midwifery students, and how is it coordinated in this institution
3. How was your experience of domiciliary midwifery care?
4. What impact do you think this practice has on the students' midwifery skills?
5. Share with us some of the factors that facilitated or enabled the domiciliary care practice
6. What challenges did you experience with regard to domiciliary care?
7. Do you have any comments about your experience of domiciliary midwifery which are not sufficiently discussed in this interview?
8. Please share with us any other suggestions/recommendations you may have regarding domiciliary midwifery.

Thanks for your participation in this study.

INTERVIEW GUIDE FOR STUDENTS

Introductory question: Can you please give us a short profile of yourself? (Your age, gender, marital status, and study entry type). These were written down on a piece of paper given to each participant.

Experience of Domiciliary midwifery (Other probing questions were asked based on their response)

1. Please share with me your understanding of domiciliary midwifery.
2. How and where did you meet the mothers to whom you rendered domiciliary midwifery care?
3. How was your experience of domiciliary midwifery care?
4. How did the domiciliary care impact your midwifery skills?

5. Share with us some of the factors that facilitated or enabled your domiciliary care practice
6. What challenges did you experience with regard to domiciliary care?
7. Do you have any comments about your experience of domiciliary midwifery which are not sufficiently discussed in this interview?
8. Please share with us any other suggestions you may have regarding domiciliary midwifery.

Thanks for your participation in this study.