

Interview guide

- What do you know regarding the concept of shared decision making?
- In your opinion, who should make treatment decisions?
- What do you think is the use of the concept of shared decision-making for the clinical care plan of individual patients?
- Who usually makes treatment decisions clinically?
- How do you use shared decision-making for individual patients in your daily care?
- What do you think of the role and function of nursing staff in the decision-making sharing process?
- What abilities do you think nurses need to possess or improve to achieve shared decision-making?
- Please think about the most recent treatment meeting you attended, at which a treatment decision was made.
- What do you think are the obstacles to implementing shared decision making?