

Table 3. Frequency of codes across sectors in the Palestinian Health System

This table presents the frequency of codes derived from the thematic analysis of 17 key informant interviews. Codes are categorized by sector type: Public sector (government), NGOs, and private for-profit organizations. The distribution highlights variations in emphasis across sectors regarding Public-Private.

Mian codes	Public sector - Government	NGOs	Private for Profit
PPP is not Applied yet in the Palestinian context	1	0	0
PPP is important Strategy	4	1	2
Need PPP for advance treatment	5	0	6
Perceptions of Previous PPP Experiences	1	0	1
Not applied on scientific measures	3	0	1
PPP is important for specialized education	1	0	3
Partially applied	4	0	2
PPP Need clarity of vision	3	8	18
Need governance	5	7	6
Vision for PPP Implementation	1	1	0
Prior Knowledge if PPP applied	2	0	1
BOT not feasible	1	2	0
Cost Benefit Analysis	7	0	2
Reform of Purchasing service system	3	3	7
Government as Regulator	5	6	3
Reform of Health Insurance System	2	3	9
Financial Burden	5	2	1
Restriction due occupation	1	0	0
Political and economic limitation	4	6	9
Gov. Enforced to purchase from Private	3	1	0
Insurance system	2	3	3
Financial Concerns	3	2	3
Status quo should be considered	2	3	1
Collaboration Dynamics	13	5	9
Project Design and Planning	2	0	2
Total codes	83	53	89