

Supplementary Figure 1. Concentration curves including all time points where drug was detected in individual horses. Plasma concentrations are represented by the yellow line, red blood cells by the purple line, and whole blood by the red line.