

Patients being cared for in the new paediatric ward at Martha Tubman Memorial Hospital in Grand Gedeh County funded by Irish Aid

Qualified paediatric clinician treating a severely nourished child.

Baby receiving oxygen, with his mother.

Child with pneumonia receiving oxygen and intravenous fluids.