

Additional file 3 forms for individual calves regarding feeding routines.

CALF CARD

Identification number calf: _____ Date of birth: _____ Time: _____ Breed: _____
Identification number mother: _____ Breed of mother: _____ Lactation number: _____
Where was the calf born? ☐ calving pen individual ☐ group pen ☐ tie stall cubicle ☐ free stall
How many days did calf spend with mother? _____
Herd: _____ Herd number (SE): _____

Definitions:

Colostrum = Milk from the first milking after calving

Transition milk = Milk from the second and to the 8th milking after calving

Whole milk = Milk from the cow, from later than the 8th milking.

Powder milk = All forms of milk in powder form.

Milk from cow with mastitis= the milk macroscopically changed. Please mark even if the mastitis wasn't treated with anti microbials

Water was added = If water was added to the milk, please mark it with a cross

From which individual does the milk come from = Write id nr, if many cows write the three most newly calved cows.

Disease = Write what disease or the symptoms, i.e. arthritis, pneumonia, diarrhoea, cough and so on

Has the calf received treatment = Write any treatment, even rehydration solutions or nsais, please also note the dose given.

[illegible]

Additional file 3 forms for individual calves regarding feeding routines.

Calf Card Page 2

Identification number calf: _____ Herd: _____

Definitions:

Colostrum = Milk from the first milking after calving

Transition milk = Milk from the second and to the 8th milking after calving

Whole milk = Milk from the cow, from later than the 8th milking.

Powder milk = All forms of milk in powder form.

Milk from cow with mastitis= the milk macroscopically changed. Please mark even if the mastitis wasn't treated with anti microbials

Water was added = If water was added to the milk, please mark it with a cross

From which individual does the milk come from = Write id nr, if many cows write the three most newly calved cows.

Disease = Write what disease or the symptoms, i.e. arthritis, pneumonia, diarrhoea, cough and so on

Has the calf received treatment = Write any treatment, even rehydration solutions or nsais, please also note the dose given.

[illegible]