

Additional file 1. A standard curve for canine C-reactive protein (CRP) concentrations from 1.6 to 100 ng/mL generated with our one-step sandwich ELISA. Purified canine CRP was quantitated by using a combination of two monoclonal antibodies: 4D3C1 as the capture antibody and 3B4D3 conjugated with horseradish peroxidase as the detection antibody.