

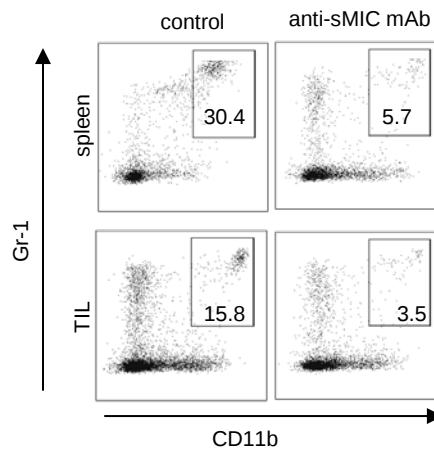

Figure S2. Representative flow cytometry plots demonstrating that neutralizing circulating sMIC with a monoclonal antibody reduces the population of MDSC in the spleen and tumor infiltrates (TILs). Data represents at least 5 animals in the control or anti-sMIC treated group.