

Figure A2: Overview of the slope of each feature over time. Red indicates the progressive organ dysfunction group, green the no organ dysfunction group and blue the stable organ dysfunction group. For each 3-hour window the median and interquartile range are shown in the figures as the shaded area. Measurements that were tested significant ($p < 0.05$) using a Kruskal-Wallis test are marked with an asterisk.