

Additional file 9: Figure S5

ASD co-expression performance variation is not explained by age.

A & B – Performance for ASD candidates is plotted against age in weeks for each sample (prenatal in A and postnatal in B where prenatal is calculated as 42 weeks - age). Unlike the association we observed between expression and performance, no strong association is observed with age, indicating that gene expression level can serve as an important and independent explanatory variable.