

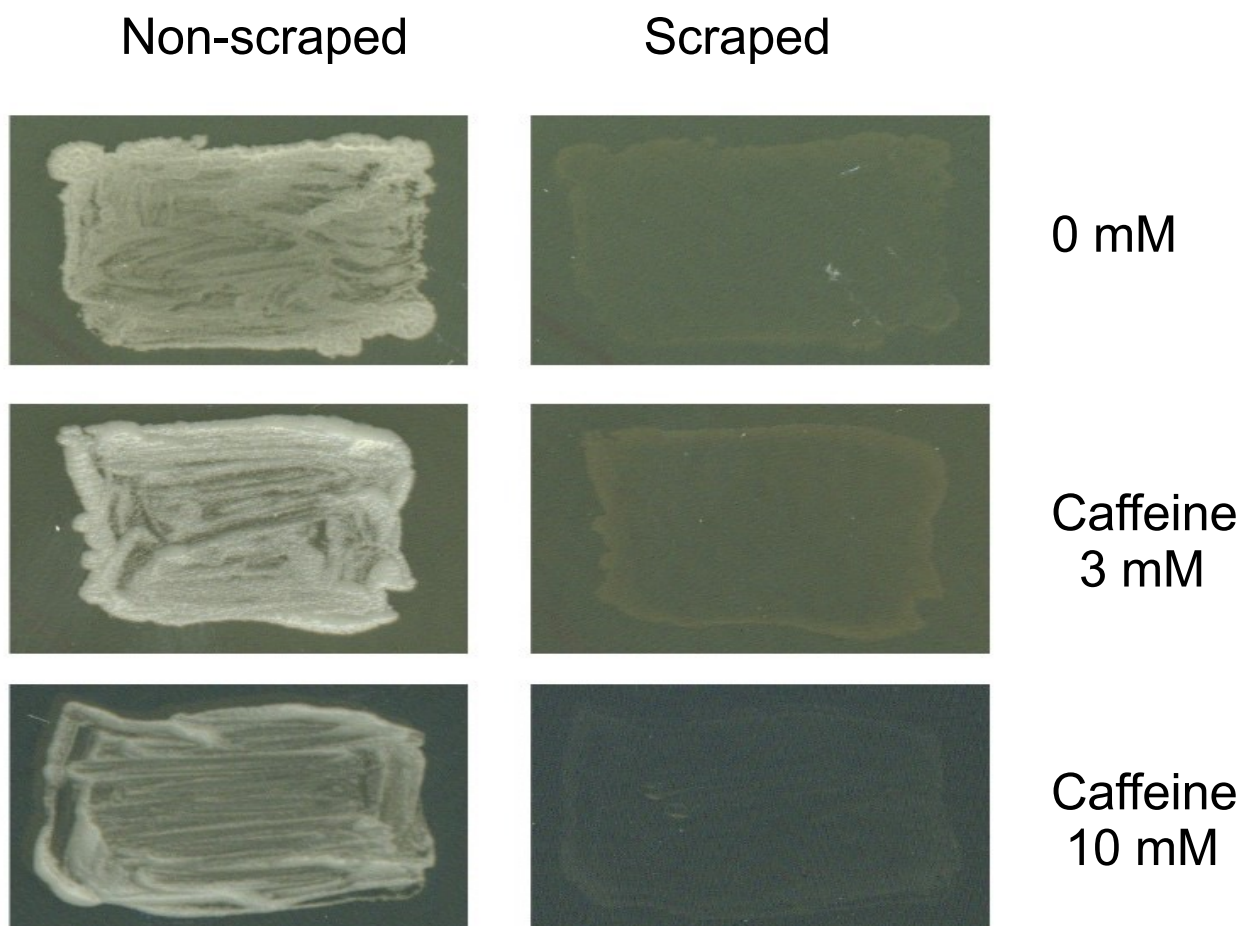

Figure S4. Invasive growth under caffeine stress. Cells of the haploid $\Sigma 1278$ strain were grown on YPD plates containing different concentrations of caffeine (3 and 10 mM). A typical result is shown from two independent replicates, each containing two technical replicates.