

Additional file 9. Prediction success of corridor SSF models. Dark gray: individuals where corridor locations had higher prediction value than random locations. Light gray: individuals where random locations had higher prediction value than corridor locations.