

Additional file 5: signal strength at departure and arrival of migratory flights over sea

Signals as received during departure and arrival (left and right panels). Tag deployments of individual bats are shown in panel titles. Each colour reflects an individual antenna (receivers have 2-6 individual antennas). Lines show smoothed (polynomial) relations for visualisation purposes only. Vertical dashed lines are the derived arrival and departure time (time with maximum signal strength).

