|  | At the beginning I was honest, and then answered questions randomly.                                                                                                                                                                                              |  | 1 | 0.5% |
|  | I answered many of them honestly, but I started to feel like I was being asked the same thing a million times. So towards the end I just started putting "some" for everything because I was getting a little frustrated and ready to be finished, quite honesty. |  | 1 | 0.5% |
|  | I felt that the assignment was somewhat dull and tedious, but I did try to answer the questions.                                                                                                                                                                  |  | 1 | 0.5% |
